

What Mr. Perkins Wants: Anyone who looks exactly like this guy's mom will do... Amanda Hawkins

WHAT MR. PERKINS WANTS

All right, Timothy. I'm ready. You can open your eyes. So now do you believe me? Am I not Mrs. Felicia Hardway, from my lovely hairdo to the tips of my toes, even the tone of my voice? Are you thinking that I might actually be her?

Holy crap. Dude, you look exactly like your mom! You sound like her too. How is this even possible? I know you're not the biggest guy in the world, but it's not like you're all that effeminate either. It's incredible!

Well, Timothy, it certainly helps that my son is a certified theatrical makeup artist. He and I share a similar facial structure and he's been working on duplicating my face for weeks. As for the hairstyle, his ex-girlfriend works in a salon, and once he grew his own hair long enough it was easy for her to copy my usual style. Everything else was simple: fake breasts, fake vagina, all glued on tight, and of course he keeps his arms and legs nicely shaved. He never had much body hair anyway. With me away, he had full access to my wardrobe---and presto, here I am.

All I can say is yikes! So, uh, you're really gonna do this?

Absolutely. I'm going to let that nice Mr. Perkins take me to the charity ball tomorrow night, and while I'm there I'm going to hit him up for all he's worth, to support the fund for the new campus theater building my son and his friends need. Goodness, you should hear him go on about it. Mice, leaks, a clunky old heating system... if it isn't replaced soon the whole programme might be shut down and he'd be out of a job. As his mother, I can't let that happen. I'll make sure they get the money they need.

Are you serious? Whaddya think this Perkins dude is gonna want, once you get him to cough up all that cash? I'm thinkin' you, on your back, in his bed---

What Mr. Perkins wants, Mr. Perkins gets... I can be penetrated, sweetie, just like any woman, and where the flesh is weak the mouth is willing. Don't worry, I know exactly what men like. I'll make him very happy.
